

DTK-GPK1

Gate Access Surge Protection Kit General Product Specifications

Gate Protection Kits from DITEK are designed for residential and commercial professionals specializing in gate access systems.

The 120HW protects the AC power line. The 4LVTEP is designed to protect commercial gate entry systems. The 4LVLPCR protects all wires leading to the card reader/keypad. The 4LVLPD protects against surges that are locally induced

Product Description

DTK-GPK1

- 120HW Parallel Installation AC Surge Protector
  - Provides AC power protection for alarm power supply at the panel
  - 22,500 A peak surge current capacity
  - Diagnostic indicators confirm ground presence, unit function and AC power
- 4LVTEP Telephone Entry System Surge Protector
  - Screw terminal device that protects commercial gate entry systems
  - Protects power supply, telephone line and data circuits
  - Automatic reset protects against repeated surges
- 4LVLPCR Card Reader Surge Protector
  - Series connection, parallel function adds no resistance to loop circuits
  - Protects power, LED and data lines
  - Single grounding point for consistent protection
- 4LVLPD Universal Terminal Strip Device
  - Protects the exit and safety loops and the data line on the gate panel from surges that are locally induced

Warranty (All Products): 10 Year Limited Warranty

Note: See individual datasheets for detailed product specifications.

